Safeguarding response practice

Fictional scenario worksheet

Use a fictional example to practise a safe response. For a real concern, stop and follow your employer or training provider policy.

1. What did you directly see or hear?

2. Exact words, date, time and place

3. Is there an immediate safety risk? What makes you think this?

4. Who is the named safeguarding or welfare contact?

5. Safe response checklist

- [ ] Listen calmly and take the concern seriously
- [ ] Do not promise secrecy
- [ ] Do not investigate or confront
- [ ] Record facts and exact words where possible
- [ ] Report promptly through the correct route

Prevent decision aid

Notice risk without making assumptions

Use this only with fictional examples. For a real concern, share factual information with your designated safeguarding lead or named Prevent contact.

1. What was directly observed or said?

2. What relevant context is known, without assumptions?

3. Could there be other explanations?

4. Decision prompts

- [ ] Immediate threat or danger: use emergency procedures
- [ ] Pattern of pressure, secrecy, isolation or escalating harm
- [ ] Concern is based on behaviour and context, not identity or lawful opinion
- [ ] Do not investigate, debate or monitor private accounts
- [ ] Share factual concern through safeguarding

5. Who will receive the concern and what was shared?

Digital safeguarding review

Communications, content and respectful culture

Project, channel or content

Check before sharing or publishing

- [ ] Purpose is clear and necessary
- [ ] Only people who need access have it
- [ ] Personal contact details are minimised
- [ ] Consent or other lawful basis is understood
- [ ] Planned use matches what people were told
- [ ] Captions, edits and context are fair
- [ ] Location and metadata do not expose someone
- [ ] Harmful content will be reported, not forwarded
- [ ] Work chats have professional boundaries
- [ ] A welfare or reporting contact is visible

Risk, gap or concern identified

Action, owner and review date
